CLOSING EXERCISES

Of the Cathedral Parish Schools Took Place Last Evening.

THE AFFAIR AN ENTIRE SUCCESS

And Largely Attended by Parents and Friends—Bishop Donahue Made the Pleasing Closing Address to the Scholars—The Exercises of the Scholars of Mrs. Hart's School.

The annual closing exercises of the scholars of St. Joseph's parish schools took place last evening in the Convent hall, corner of Fourteenth and Eoff streets, and conservatively speaking the affair was a complete well-rounded success. The attendance was fully as large as ever before, including parents and friends of the scholars and school, who crowded the room to its full capacity. Bishop Donahue was present and his closing address to the scholars was one of the features of the evening.

The first feature of the programme of the exercises of the evening was the address of welcome by Harry Corcoran, and this young gentleman did himself and his instructors a heaping measure of credit. His talk made the guests of the evening feel entirely at home and in pleasant frame of mind.

The singing of "Sailing" by the large boys of the school was the next number and it was received by the audience with great and apparent favor.

The recitation, "Our Heroes," was by Master Alfred Poe, and was fully up to the standard already set by the young scholars of this well known institution of instruction.

The calliothone march by the boys of the school was next given, and the precision with which the various movements were rendered showed the proficiency which the instruction given at the school has imparted.

The concert recitation, "Find a Way or Make It," was by the following boys: Charles Gibben, Vincent Roth, Frank Develle, William Glenn, Edward Wiggins and Edward Smith. It was a novel feature, well presented, which pleased the audience to a high degree.

The operetta, "Guardian Angel Mother," was the next number on the excellent programme, and was given by the following cast:

Cecilia, Countess Lucy's daughter—Flanagan
Ruth, Little mother—Ella (Ed)
Lillian—Lillian
Belle—Lillian Gladys—Lillian

This production was given in a manner that testified slightly but warmly to the thoroughness of the instruction given the young people at St. Joseph's school.

The kazoo band's performance was the next feature and it completely captivated the audience. This closed the programme of exercises, and then Bishop Donahue, who was a pleased auditor of the exercises, arose and made the address of the evening to the scholars. In the course of his talk, he remarked on the high grade of the Cathedral parish schools and promised in the near future, improvements and enlargements of the Wheeling schools. In his conclusion he addressed himself to the youngsters, and his words had an extremely happy effect on the boys and girls.

THE CLOSING EXERCISES

Of Mrs. Hart's School, on Market Street, Yesterday Forenoon.

The closing exercises of Mrs. Hart's school took place on Thursday at 10 a. m. The exercises consisted of prayer by Dr. Cunningham, followed by original compositions by the following pupils:

Flora Stifel—My Own Lot the Best
Mattie Ott—Aristocrat Light a Civilization
Sue Westwood—A Sketch of the Life of Madame de Maintenon
Mary Paul—Headgear
Julia Savage—Way Girls should Study Latin
Sue Stifel—Jack-Jack's story
Anne Cunningham—Silver Grains of Corn
Campbell Henderson—The Uses of Coal
Ada Savage—March Winds, April Showers and May Flowers
Edna Ewing—West Virginia Hills
Tom Henderson—A Boy's Opinion of Dolly
Edna Cunningham—Two Little Girls
Edna Cunningham—The Lily and the Rose
Searching for Father—Helen Smith, Kathleen Franzheim, Helen Jones, India Goyer, Margaret Cunningham, Alberta Stifel, Hester Brady, Dollie Brady, May Franzheim.
Changements from Mother Goose—Charlie Sonzogni, Herbert Sonzogni, Philip Bettingham, John Smith, George Franzheim, Margaret Camulus, India Goyer, Nelson Smith, Ethel Williams, May Franzheim, Burgess Noble, Frank Heel.

At the close of the exercises by the pupils the following young ladies received certificates:

Rhetoric—Misses Flora Stifel, Hannachon Bonheim, Julia Savage, Mamie Westwood, Mary Paul, Mattie Ott.

Higher Algebra—Flora Stifel, Mamie Westwood, Julia Savage, Hannachon Bonheim.

Elementary Algebra—Mattie Ott, Mary Paul.

American History—Sue Stifel, Nellie Stifel, Alice Mady, Jessie Wheat, Genevieve Holliday, Ella Mill, Katherine Hughes, Mary Simpson.

Elementary Arithmetic—Nemie Morris, Ada Smith, Campbell Henderson, Edna Ewing, Mary Hazlett, Arthur Stifel, Tom Henderson, Lola Elliott.

Latin (Caesar class)—Anna Westwood, Mattie Ott.

Physiology—Alice Mady, Ella Brice, Jessie Wheat, Katherine Hughes, Nellie Stifel, Mary Simpson, Sue Stifel, Genevieve Holliday.

Miss Hannachon Bonheim entertained the audience in a very pleasing manner by reading extracts from "The Knowledge Bag," the school organ, issued monthly. The articles read by Miss Bonheim were mostly of a humorous character and all evinced the native genius of the young contributor.

The essays gave evidence of careful training in that most important branch of education—the art of expressing thought, and altogether the closing of the year's work in this school was highly gratifying to the patrons and friends who were present on the occasion.

An appropriate address by Dr. Cunningham delighted the appreciative audience, and after the usual "Good

Two Committees to Meet.

Meetings of the council committees on real estate and police have been called for this evening. The real estate committee is called to make arrangements for repairs to the Paxton fountain, which has been in a disgraceful condition for a long time. The finance committee has agreed to allow $200 to put the fountain in repair, and the work should be done at once.

CURES WOMEN

M. W. Scott, Esq., of the U. S. Marshall's Office, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "For many years my wife has been a constant sufferer from indigestion, sick headache, nervous prostration and all other complaints that the female sex is heir to, and after trying many remedies and doctors with but little or no relief, I persuaded her to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' She was so out of heart, she returned the answer that it would be like all the rest—of no good; but on my account, she said she would try it, so I got one bottle each; and before she had used half of a bottle she felt that it was benefiting her, and she has continued to improve ever since, and now thinks it the most wonderful remedy on earth for her sex, and recommends it to all suffering females. She has not been so well in ten years."

I write this without any solicitation and with a free good will, so that you may let all who may suffer know what it has done for her." Sold by medicine dealers everywhere.
